

Colorado Columbine Chapter, ANG
Chapter Meeting
October 18, 2010

Call to Order: 7:05 by President, Vickie Makings

Treasurer: Terri Dorr reported $4 earned interest and that she paid the dues to TACTile. Vickie mentioned the recent article about TACTile and reviewed the new address (1955 So. Quince). TACTile now has an association with JHB International, a major button distributor.

Secretary: Luron Porter had September's minutes with her in case anyone chose to read them. They had previously been approved by the board.

Membership (2nd VP): Abby Clymer reported 19 members and 3 guests present. Guests were Agnes Wyman, Christina Dillon, and Dheyanna Ryeye-Hounou. She reminded those who had not paid their chapter dues that they are due this month. (We have gone back to a once per year payment.) And, she is in the process of editing the new roster.

Programs (1st VP) Cynthia Land mentioned our annual Holiday party will be next month – a sign-up sheet was passed around. Either a ham or turkey breast will be provided. Anyone who wants to participate in a gift exchange should bring a stitching related item ($10 or under).

Tonight's program is part 1 of Circles, a Lois Kershner piece.
January will be part 1 of Jean DeHaven's Tamari Balls. ($25)
February is part 2 of Circles,
March is part 2 of Tamari Balls.
April is Installation of Officers
May is Jean Hilton's ornaments
June is a button design – to be taught by Jennifer Riefenberg
July is a painted canvas – to be taught by Ritta Smith
August- no meeting
September – to be determined - taught by Caela Conn Tyler
October – Laying tool case – taught by Karen Race
November – Holiday party

Web Master: Madonna was not present, but was given high praise for her wonderful job. Everyone is impressed with her website.

Historian: Julie Storick was excused.

Corresponding Secretary: Ritta Smith was excused, but has sent out several greeting cards.

Past President: Jane Mailand was given the book, SAMPLERS, by Rebecca Scott to review. It was a lovely book full of United States and United Kingdom historical drawings. Jane was willing to part with it and asked that those who were interested in having it put their name in the jar and a winner would be announced later. Janet Celmer is now the proud owner.

New Business: None

Show and Tell:

Marcia Gouldy: Ro Pace's collection of Jean Hilton stitches done in 4 different squares with different colors. (It was a Milwaukee Seminar piece), and a small elephant piece.

Mary Mahaffey: Swedish book marks

Carolyn Burke: Purple Hearts

Vicki Shigley: Purple Hearts, Circles (finished as a pillow), and Larry the Turkey

The meeting was adjourned at 7:22 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Luron Porter, Secretary
