Barb G. (1st V.P. Programming) – For September meeting – a pilot class with Needlepoint Designer Kurdi Biggs speaking and instructing one of her kit projects of a Christmas ornament.

A quick project of three styles of pens with a needlepoint insert to stitch was mentioned, and projected for November after the Pot Luck.

Ritta S. will instruct the needlepoint project in October titled “Eat, Love, Stitch” and all has been ordered for this.

“Stitch-In” – possibilities include meeting on a Saturday or Sunday at maybe the Science Museum that holds 18-20 people, St. Michael’s Church, or even a person’s home. If at St Michael’s Church for January 6, 2013 for needlepoint tour and stitch in there stitching room (4-6 hours available). Potentially, CCC/ANG can invite other needlepoint groups to broaden the stitching horizon.

Tina H. (Membership) – Members: June 12 people, July 15 people, “Stitch ‘n Pitch” 8. October is Membership renewal month and there will be a membership drive with a drawing at the October meeting for a prize, after many have rejoined for the year.

“Stitch ‘n Pitch” - Jane M. did such a nice job making the glow in the dark bracelets with CCC/ANG business cards attached for all, Congratulations Jane!

Lea K. (Hospitality) – The November meeting is the Annual Holiday Pot Luck Party and all can sign up at the October meeting. The Board mentioned that instead of a present exchange of donating monetarily to a charity CCC/ANG and all decide on.

Ritta S. (Corresponding Secretary) No new news

Vickie M. (Past President) Mentioned a new needlepoint store in Estes Park that she visited called the "Stitchin Den." She has expanded her store with an entire Needlepoint Room, and is owned by Susan Mock.
